in 2nd Reading

Councilor Dwight commented that at the last meeting there were people who testified about the value of maintaining a tax factor of one, meaning that residential and commercial taxpayers pay the same rate. The City has a much lower commercial tax rate than a lot of surrounding areas that have a split factor. It has been mentioned that the split tax rate has an adverse impact on businesses or the ability to develop a business. The City government has received a lot of criticism for not being business friendly. The community is committed to maintaining a commercial tax rate in order to maintain commercial business in downtown. Councilor Dwight hopes that commercial property owners recognize the single tax rate as a gesture of goodwill, hope, and faith in their investment in the community.

Councilor Bidwell observed that the factor of one is significant, however, he cautions that "we should not let ourselves off the hook" looking for other ways to be responsive to the business community.

Councilor Murphy noted that the services are provided primarily for the residential tax payers. The commercial property base does not cost as much to maintain so the larger our commercial base and the more that we nurture that, the more tax revenue we have to spend on the needs of residents. The most expensive service is schools; commercial properties don't generate kids in schools. The money that the commercial base generates is spent on the residential base.

The motion was approved on a roll call vote of 8 Yes, 0 No, 1 Vacant. Mayor Narkewicz explained that these ordinances are the first of many that he will be introducing over the next couple of months. Some are the result of the downtown parking study that was prepared by Walker Parking Consultants. These ordinances combined will implement the recommendation that the on-street parking along Main Street be extended from one hour to two hours and also the recommendation that the hourly fee (which is currently $0.75) be increased to $1.00. In the Old South Street Parking Lot parking time would increase from one hour to two hours. The study showed that in this area there is not adequate turn over; people have observed that drivers will cruise for parking. It was explained that the Main Street parking is "prime" but it is not priced that way. In fact, it is priced comparable to parking on side streets. Part of the effort is to set the parking rate such that people who make economic decisions about parking decide to park elsewhere for a cheaper rate. The two hours parking came out of meetings with businesses. The Mayor plans to bring further ordinances forward that will be tied to other recommendations that were made. The Mayor wants to get these ordinances in place in time for the holiday season. Councilor Bidwell noticed that one of the recommendations in the study that the Mayor is not acting on now is the extension of meter time until 8 p.m. Mayor Narkewicz explained that the recommendation was to extend parking times only on Main Street. The Mayor explained that business owners were not keen on the idea and the Mayor thought it would be confusing to have two separate parking times in the same vicinity. Councilor O'Donnell commented that the Transportation and Parking Commission supported these changes. He also notes that the changes were not made in a vacuum. There was a careful study that was conducted and these changes will be part of a holistic plan. He is grateful that the City is thinking about parking in the downtown and seeking opportunities to strengthen the City's parking system. The plan includes ways to increase turnover in the busiest area of downtown. Councilor O'Donnell is happy to support the ordinances. Mayor Narkewicz noted that the changes also support efforts around sustainability to discourage people from driving downtown, but rather walk or bike. Councilor Dwight states that when he posted an article about this on Facebook he got a lot of feedback. He notes that it is a misconception that this is aimed at making money. It is rather a way to encourage parking turnover in the downtown district. He recalls that originally businesses wanted one-hour parking when downtown primarily a run-in run-out type of shopping district. Now, with more restaurants there seems to be a shift in what businesses want so that customers can go to restaurants or bars and not feel rushed during their meal.

Councilor LaBarge asked the Mayor if he went directly to the merchants; Mayor Narkewicz said that he did and spoke with various merchants in downtown. He also stated that first hour in the parking garage is free and you can't get a parking ticket there since you pay for parking when you leave.

Councilor Sciarra stated that there was no Public Comment about this ordinance in either the Transportation and Parking Commission meeting or in the Committee on Legislative Matters meeting. She had heard that the rate hike would hurt people who have disabilities. She explained that Mass General Law allows people with handicap placards to park anywhere without having to feed the meter.

Councilor O'Donnell observed that in 16.165 the third row says Main Street-Entire length. Then the next three rows are subsections of Main Street. Mayor Narkewicz explained that this was the format in originally in the code book, and he is not sure if this was intended to address the gaps on Main Street. Councilor Dwight requested an illustrative map for the second reading.

Motion Carried See minutes of November 3, 2016 for second reading.

Motion to approve 16.172 in 1st Reading

16.172 An Ordinance to amend list of enforcing officers and penalties for noncriminal disposition from Chapter 40-5 of the Code Book -1st Reading Councilor Murphy moved to approve the ordinance in first reading; Councilor O'Donnell seconded the motion. The motion was approved on a roll call vote of 8 Yes, 0 No, 1 Vacant.

Councilor O'Donnell understands that this ordinance is about what you cannot do on sidewalks. You can't ride a skateboard; throw snowballs, etc. Currently there is no penalty imposed for an infraction; this will add a fine when the ordinance is not followed. This will be a $20 ticket. Councilor Dwight noted that in the past the Police used to confiscate skateboards, but this was apparently illegal.

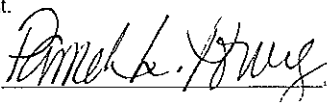

Councilor Klein stated that there was recently a situation in Ward 7 that was not enforceable by the Police. She wondered if there was a plan to go through the ordinances to figure out where there might be a similar issue.

Councilor LaBarge noted that there is also a problem in Ward 6; the language in the noise ordinance does not allow the Police to take action when there is a complaint because of the word, "unreasonable". Councilor LaBarge agrees that the ordinances should be looked at.
